

Year 4 - Writing

Greater Depth	What it looks like
From learning to date the pupil can:	Across a range of pieces:
write effectively and coherently for different purposes, drawing on their reading to inform the vocabulary and grammar of their writing	- describe settings, characters and atmosphere with carefully chosen vocabulary to enhance mood, clarify meaning and create pace. choice of language and writing style mirrors that of a breadth of reading high quality literature
show awareness of how the language used for speech and writing can change for different registers	- purposeful choice of informal or formal writing is evident across genres such as informal for diary entries, formal for a letter or report - dialogue and reporting clauses are used to convey characterisation
use the punctuation taught at Year 3 & 4 effectively[^]	- use speech punctuation correctly on most occasions - accurate use of apostrophes for singular possessive spell KS1 common exception words and most of the Y4 spelling list*	- spelling is accurate across most pieces of writing; errors have been recognised and corrected - suffixes are used consistently
[There are no additional GDS statements for handwriting]

* These are detailed in the word lists within the spelling appendix to the national curriculum (English Appendix 1). Teachers should refer to these to exemplify the words that pupils should be able to spell.

[^] This relates to punctuation taught in the national curriculum, which is detailed within the grammar and punctuation appendix to the national curriculum (English Appendix 2).
